

THE INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT BOARD OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

ORDER

WHEREAS, in response to the fact that the Center for Disease Control and Prevention has determined that a novel coronavirus ("COVID-19") presents a serious public health threat, the Delaware Supreme Court has issued a statement advising that members of the public who are experiencing symptoms such as cough, fever or other respiratory problems should stay home and, if they have a court date scheduled, that they should notify the appropriate parties.

WHEREAS, pursuant to its Standing Order No. 2 Concerning COVID-19 Precautionary Measures, the Superior Court has suspended all Civil and Criminal Jury Trials through and including April 15, 2020.

WHEREAS, as of March 16, 2020, the Delaware Department of Labor has suspended public access to all offices until further notice.

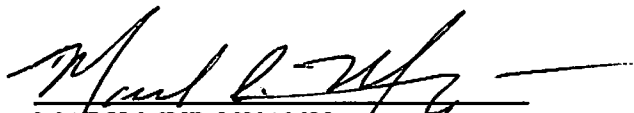

WHEREAS, the Industrial Accident Board regularly conducts hearings involving the attendance of litigants, practitioners, witnesses and other interested persons.

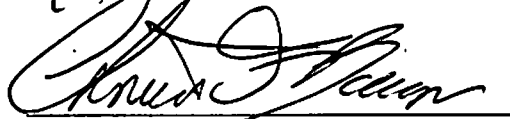

WHEREAS, the Board is dedicated to protecting the legal interests of those individuals, as well as protecting their health and the health of the Board Members, Hearing Officers, staff and the public.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is HEREBY ORDERED, this 16th day of March, 2020, that the Industrial Accident Board will suspend/continue all Industrial Accident Board hearings until at least April 3, 2020, subject to review and extension as events warrant and subject to further order of the Board.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 16th day of March, 2020.
