

Occupations: A Month of Classroom Activities

November is Career Development Month. Use these activities to expose your students to the world of work. Each day, have a student pick one of these activities out of a hat. Encourage research and discussion, and have fun with them!

Brainstorm ways to learn about occupations; write the list on the blackboard. Choose at least two ways to gather information about an occupation of your choice.	Name 5 occupations in your school. Do you think people in these jobs have to work together as a team? Why or why not? 	What jobs require you to work on your feet all day? Would you prefer to work at a desk or mostly on your feet? Why?
Name 5 occupations that work with animals. Draw a picture of yourself doing one of these jobs. Be sure to include the animal! 	What are some jobs related to sports, other than professional athletes? Do any of these interest you? What skills &amp; training would you need to do the one you like?	What is your favorite school subject? Can you think of two jobs that would require you to be really good in that subject? Do either of them interest you? Why?
Talk with your classmates about jobs you see at the grocery store. What kinds of skills are needed for each of these jobs? 	Brainstorm "helping jobs". Write a thank-you note to someone who does a helping job. Make sure to tell him/her why you appreciate the job he/she is doing.	What occupations do you see when you are on your way to school? Are these jobs inside or outside? Would you rather work inside or outside? Why?
Talk about the jobs that are found in a restaurant. Break into groups and make up a skit that shows how all these jobs work together to make a successful business.	List as many types of vehicles as you can think of on land, sea, and air. Which one would you most like to drive/pilot? Draw a picture. 	What are some habits you can develop in school that will prepare you to be a good employee? Which habit have you developed? Why is it important?
Think of an occupation that interests you for each letter of your first and last name. A-Astronaut	Name an occupation you would NOT like to do. What is it about this occupation that you don't like? Write a paragraph to explain your feelings.	Think of an occupation and then make up three clues that describe it. Have a classmate guess the occupation.
Name 5 occupations that work with children. Would you like to work with children? Write a paragraph that explains your answer.	Think of as many jobs as you can that work outside. What are the pros and cons of having an outside job? 	What is your dream occupation? Using your favorite art supplies, reveal your dream occupation.
Do you like to create things? If you could have a creative profession, what would it be? Demonstrate your creativity for the class.	What skills have you learned by doing chores at home? Would any of these skills be useful in a job? 	Write a list of businesses on the board. Choose the one in which you would most like to work. In pairs, guess which business each other chose. Discuss reasons.
