INTRODUCING THE CAREER HEROES

Career Heroes is a set of career education tools designed around the theme of popular trading card games. The goal of Career Heroes is simple: to introduce elementary school children to the concept of career planning and to teach them the basics of using career information. Career Heroes consists of two main components:

The Career Heroes Workbook

The Career Heroes Trading Card Activities

The Career Heroes Workbook is designed to show students that their future careers can and should suit their personality types. As such, the workbook is organized according to the Holland Codes.

Holland Personality Types:

Keywords:

Realistic	= “Doers”	practical, athletic, mechanical, persistent, systematic, stable
Investigative	= “Thinkers”	analytical, scholarly, scientific, curious, introspective, precise
Artistic	= “Creators”	expressive, intuitive, independent, imaginative, innovative
Social	= “Helpers”	friendly, cooperative, empathetic, patient, insightful, kind
Enterprising	= “Persuaders”	sociable, energetic, adventurous, inquisitive, assertive
Conventional	= “Organizers”	well-organized, systematic, accurate, efficient, structured

The Career Heroes Workbook is divided into two major sections. The first introduces students to specific careers that correspond to the Holland Codes. For each personality type, the workbook describes six occupations, two of which are highlighted with their own character cards. These cards list career information such as work activities, tools used, training required, and wages.

(Note: The cards depicted in the workbook may not be identical to the actual trading cards.)

The first section also provides a number of activities that relate to the occupations described in each section. For instance, after students read about the Nutritionist, they are asked to draw a picture of a healthy meal that includes all the basic food groups. (Note: Students may need to discuss or research the food groups.)

The second section of the workbook (starting on page 23) provides an assortment of additional activities to get students thinking about the range of careers that exist, and how their personal interests and preferences can help them choose the kind of work they would like to do.

The Career Heroes Teacher’s Guide is also divided into two parts. Section one is a guide to the Career Heroes Workbook. It introduces each activity, and provides answer keys for the exercises that have specific answers. Section two provides instructions and resources for conducting the trading card activities. The Career Heroes Trading Cards are not currently available in print but can be downloaded from our website at <https://dcrn.delawareworks.com/docs/Career-Hero-Cards-All.pdf>

The trading card activities are meant to be led by the teacher, and involve both small group work and whole class collaboration. These activities require that the teacher provide students with a set, or several sets, of Career Heroes Trading Cards. The trading cards can be downloaded and printed from our website as noted above. Please refer to page 12 to determine how many sets of cards you will need.

The Career Heroes activities call on students to use a wide range of knowledge and skills including reading, writing, mathematics, and art. It also requires research and interviewing skills.

SECTION ONE: CAREER HEROES WORKBOOK

The Career Heroes Workbook is designed to give students their first look at career planning. While most students will be aware that workers in different occupations do different kinds of work, they may not yet understand that people can choose the kind of work that best suits their personalities, and that they can use career information to help them decide which types of jobs are the best fit for them.

Try leading into the workbook by asking students to tell the class what their parents/guardians/neighbors/friends do for a living. Once everyone has had the chance to share, pose the following question: How did your father/mother/guardian/neighbor/close friend decide to become a (job title)? Chances are, most students will have no idea what led to these career decisions, and it may not have occurred to some that it was a choice at all. You might share with them the story of how you came to be a teacher. Tell them about other careers you might have considered, and why you decided against them. You might also ask them what jobs they would like to pursue, and why they think they would be good at that job. However you bring up the topic, you will want to pose the following question: How do people decide which job they want? The answer: They think about their own interests and talents, they get information on jobs that seem appealing, they find out how to prepare for the job they want, and they make a career plan.

The Career Heroes Workbook will reinforce these ideas.

WHAT IS A CAREER HERO?

Have you ever noticed how average, ordinary workers are a lot like superheroes?

They might not wear spandex bodysuits (well, except for dancers and some athletes), but many do wear uniforms or distinctive clothing that marks them as someone who is there to help you.

Speaking of helping people, isn't that exactly what both superheroes and workers do all day long? Whether it's the man who paints your house or the lady who helps you get a loan to buy a house, people in careers are there to help you.

"But wait," you say. "Superheroes have special abilities. They have been through rigorous training, and have an arsenal of highly-specialized equipment to fight the forces of evil."

Exactly. And Career Heroes are no different. Performing each job takes a unique set of skills and knowledge. Some careers take years of training, and most require special tools that must be mastered.

In fact, we think Career Heroes are so special that they deserve their own set of trading cards. Each card features a different Career Hero and details the kinds of feats they perform on the job, the tools they have mastered, and the training they needed to qualify for their job.

This workbook introduces you to just a few of the hundreds of Career Heroes out there making the world a better place. It also describes the 6 different types of Career Heroes: Doers, Thinkers, Creators, Helpers, Persuaders, and Organizers. Maybe one of these types sounds a lot like you. Do you have what it takes to become a Career Hero?

Workbook Introductory Page

Either read this introduction to your students, or ask them to read it quietly to themselves.

Explain to your students that the six types of Career Heroes actually describe work personality types, which can be used to help them decide what type of jobs to pursue.

OCCUPATION PAGES

The Workbook's first half is meant to expose students to a variety of occupations they may not be familiar with (such as Computer Systems Analysts and Forensic Science Technicians), and to clarify the tasks performed by workers with familiar job titles (such as Carpet Installers and Travel Agents). A typical occupation page from the workbook will look similar to this:

Anatomy of an Occupation Page

Occupation Title ————— Job Description

Career Heroes Card ————— (May not be identical to trading card)

Career Information —————

Holland personality type section header (career type)

Description of personality type and list of Career Heroes included in the section

Career Hero Challenges:
Short activities relating to the careers discussed on the page.

Occupation Pages:

Introduce each of the six occupation sections (corresponding to the six work personality types) by reading aloud the description of the Holland Personality Type in the yellow box, as well as the listed occupations. Ask your students what other jobs might be included under that Career Hero Type.

Review the first card aloud with the class, starting with the Occupation Title and Job Description. Point out the Career Information listed on the card, including the Wage Points. Explain that one way people choose their careers is by researching this type of information. The information provided on the cards is explained below.

Feats Performed are the work activities. This information provides an overview of the day-to-day tasks involved in the job.

Back of Cards:

Skills are what you actually do on the job. It is your ability to use your knowledge and apply it in a work context.

Knowledge is what you learn from books, teachers, media, and other sources. It is in your head.

Tools Mastered describes the tools and technology the workers must learn to use.

Training lists the minimum education level need to qualify for the job.

Employment shows how many people in Delaware hold that particular job.

SECTION TWO: TRADING CARD ACTIVITIES

These activities were designed for a classroom size of 24 to 28 students, but can be adapted to fit the unique needs of your classroom. The activities are most engaging for the students when they are allowed to collect and keep a number of cards. Our recommendation is that each student be allowed to keep 5-6 cards. Each set contains 32 cards, so you'll want to obtain 1 set for every 5 students in your class. We are no longer able to provide the cards n print, but they are still available for download as a printable PDF from our website (see contact information on page 2).

ANATOMY OF A CAREER HEROES CARD

PREPARING FOR THE ACTIVITIES

- Step 1: Break the class into groups of 5 (number can be adjusted according to class size).
- Step 2: For each group, choose one student to act as the Dealer. Give the Dealer in each group one complete set (32 cards) of Career Heroes Cards.
- Step 3: Ask the Dealer to shuffle the cards, then deal out three cards to each student in his/her group, including him/herself.
- Step 4: Instruct the Dealer to set the remaining cards aside.
- Step 5: Give the students a few minutes to read each of their cards carefully.
- Step 6: Play Career Heroes Bingo (instructions below).

ACTIVITY 1: CAREER HEROES BINGO

This activity will acquaint your students with the Career Heroes Trading Cards, and with the occupations they represent, in a fun way that offers rewards for participation. The following pages contain 3 sets of clues. Each set includes 32 clues, each corresponding to one of the 32 Career Heroes Cards. These clues are presented in random order, so you can read straight down the list, or you can choose clues randomly. (Tip: Photocopy the clues pages and check off each clue as you read it to prevent repetition.)

- Step 1: Read the first clue aloud, and ask the students to look at their cards to see if the clue matches one of the cards in their hands.
- Step 2: Students who find matching cards should lay them on the table in front of them.
- Step 3: Continue reading clues, one by one, until one of the groups has five cards laid on the table. The first group to lay down five cards should yell BINGO.
(Note: It is okay if more than one group wins, since the reward will work for multiple groups)
- Step 4: Ask the students to name the five Career Heroes Cards on the table, and check to make sure they match the clues you read. If they don't, keep playing; if they do, award the prize.
- Step 5: The prize for winning is the chance for each student in that group to exchange his/her cards for different ones. They may keep their cards, or they may exchange for up to three randomly dealt cards from the remainder of the deck. The group's Dealer should conduct the exchange.
- Step 6: When the exchange is over, have the Dealer shuffle the exchanged cards back into the deck. Each student should still have 3 cards.
- Step 7: Play again, using the second set of clues. Then play again, using the third. Play as many times as desired before moving on to the next activity. The more times you play, the more familiar the students will become with the information on the cards, and the more chances they'll have to find and keep Career Heroes in the occupations that interest them.

ACTIVITY 2: THE WAGE GAME

Step 1: Select one student in each group to be the Recorder.

Step 2: Ask each student to choose one of their 3 cards, and set the remaining two aside.

Step 3: Instruct the students to read aloud to their groups the Occupation Title and Feats Performed section from the front of the cards. Instruct them not to reveal the wage points. When they are done reading each card, instruct them to place it face down on the table, so that the occupation details (such as Super Powers) are displayed.

Step 4: Ask each group to use the information on the backs of the cards to help them guess which of the selected Career Heroes earns the highest wages. Instruct the Recorder to write a list that orders them from highest to lowest wages.

Step 5: Discussion: Ask the class, as a whole, how they decided which jobs paid the most? On what factors did they base their decisions?

Step 6: After you have heard from each group, have all the students turn over their cards to reveal the Wage Points. Have the Recorder write a second list beside the first, ordering the Career Heroes by their actual Wage Points from highest to lowest. How did they compare?

Step 7: Discussion: "Why do some jobs pay more than others?" After hearing some ideas from students, instruct them to arrange the selected cards on the table in order of Wage Points from highest to lowest, then to flip the cards again so the back side is showing. Ask them if they notice any patterns that emerge in the information. There shouldn't be a correlation between wage and skills, knowledge, or tools mastered. Some groups might find a correlation between wage and Number of Heroes in this Career, but generally they won't. However, there should be a noticeable correlation between wage points and length of training. If none of the students picks up on this, you may have to point it out.

Note: Depending on the cards chosen by the group, this correlation might be weak or not show up at all, but taking into account wage data from all occupations, there is a definite correlation.

Step 8: Discussion: Explain to the students that some occupations (like Dentists or Veterinarians) require very specialized training that takes a long time to complete, while other jobs (like Trash Collectors) use more general skills and knowledge that take only a short time to acquire. If jobs that took only a month to learn paid as much as jobs that require 8 years of college, how many people would want to spend all that time and money training? Introduce the concept of training as an investment that usually pays off in the form of higher wages. Also, introduce the concept of supply and demand. Most people have general skills and knowledge. Because a lot more people are qualified for those kinds of jobs, workers are easily replaced and can't demand to be paid as much. Far fewer people are willing to spend years and years training for an occupation, so they can ask for higher wages simply because there aren't as many people qualified to replace them.

ACTIVITY 3: NAME THAT SKILL

At this point, your students will have been exposed to the idea of skills as a Career Hero's Super Powers. They have had the chance to see that different skills are needed for different occupations, but they may not yet understand what all the terms mean. The Name That Skill game will help them learn the definition of each of the skills listed on the Career Heroes Trading Cards.

Step 1: Ask the students to return all 3 cards to their hands.

Step 2: Read aloud one of the skills definitions in the right-hand column of the Skills Table on the following page. Tip: The skills in the Skills Table have been presented in alphabetical order to make it useful as a reference sheet. However, for the game, you may want to read the definitions in a random order.

Step 3: Ask the students to review the Super Powers sections on the backs of their cards. Do any of these skills match the definition? If so, ask the students to guess which skill matches the definition, and to lay all Career Hero cards that list that skill on the table.

NOTE: Column 1 provides the exact wording of the skills found in O*NET OnLine. Column 2 provides the same skills, but they are more descriptive to facilitate comprehension. The students will match the skills on their cards to Column 2.

Step 4: Reveal the skill that matches the definition. Ask the students to count the number of cards on the table that list the correct skill, and have the recorder write down the total score for their group.

Step 5: Repeat this process until 10 definitions have been read. Have the groups add their 10 scores together to come up with a total. The group with the highest total score wins. (In case of a tie, two winning groups is acceptable.)

Step 6: Instruct the winning team(s) to have their dealer deal out 1 additional card to each team member.

Step 7: Repeat steps 2-6. It is up to you whether to repeat the process until all the definitions have been read, or to set a limit on the number of rounds.

ACTIVITY 4: CAREER CLUSTERS MATCH

Step 1: Make enough copies of the Career Clusters Match Worksheet for each student, or for each group.

Step 2: Explain the concept of Career Clusters to the class. (See below)

What are Career Clusters?

Career Clusters are groups of occupations that go together because they share a common set of skills and knowledge. For instance, architects, carpenters, electricians, plumbers, and roofers all need to know how buildings are put together, so they have all been grouped in the Architecture & Construction Cluster. Organizing careers into clusters helps educators design programs of study for a whole group of related occupations and career specialties. Career Clusters also make it easier for students to learn which kinds of jobs match their skills and interests.

Step 3: Hand out the Career Clusters Match Worksheets. Students can complete the worksheets individually, or as a group. Instruct the students to write the number of the correct Career Cluster in the blank next to each clue.

Step 4: When the worksheets have been completed, read the first definition aloud to the students. Either reveal the correct cluster to your students or ask the students to give their answers. Now ask which students have Career Heroes that belong in that cluster. Have each person who has a Hero in that cluster say the name of the occupation aloud to the class. Discuss if questions arise.

ACTIVITY 5: OCCUPATION OF CHOICE

By now, the students should begin to develop a sense of which careers are most interesting to them. This activity exposes them to additional occupations, and allows them to choose their favorites.

Step 1: Instruct the Dealer to deal out the remaining cards until everyone in the group has an equal number of cards (for groups of 5, this will be 6 cards per student, with 2 left over).

Step 2: Give the students a few moments to look over their new cards. Instruct them to read the Feats Performed summary on the front of each card to get a sense of what the job is all about.

Step 3: Ask students to choose one card that depicts the job they would most like to have when they grow up.

Optional: Allow students to trade cards in order to get the occupation that best suits their interests. (Skip this option if you feel it would create too much disorder in your classroom)

Step 4: After each student has chosen a favorite card, have them fill out the Occupation of Choice Worksheet.

Step 5: Ask the students to read their answers aloud to their groups.

ACTIVITY 6: CAREER HEROES COMMUNITY

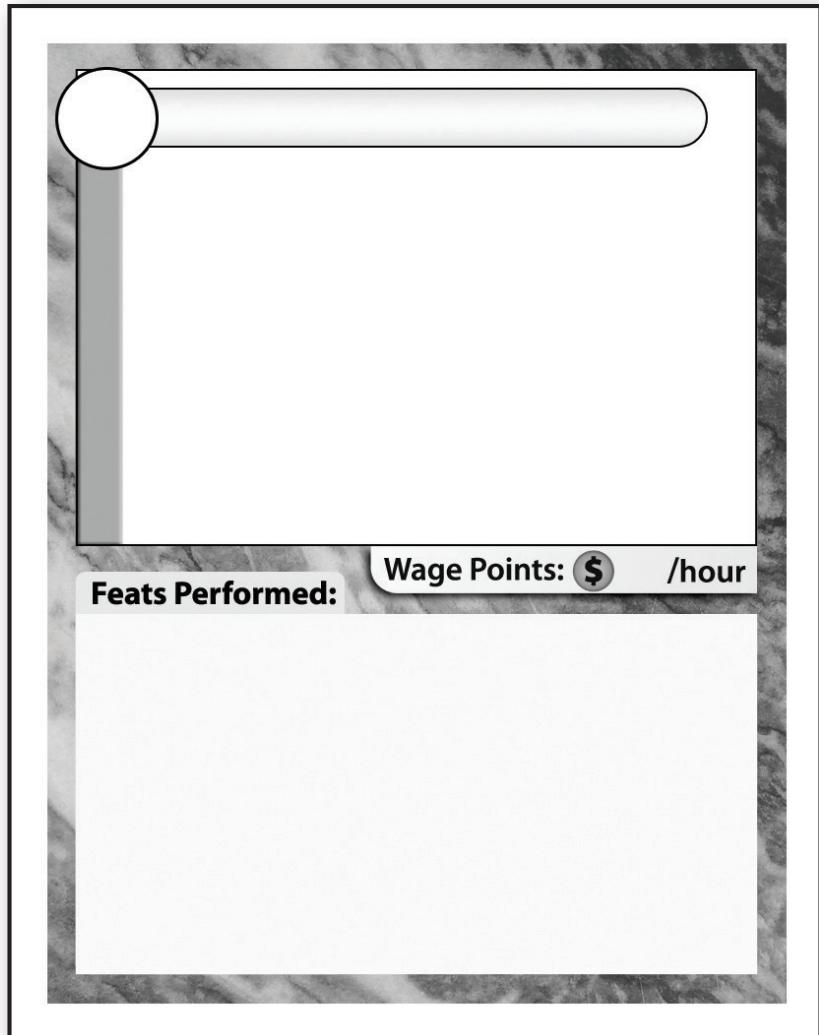

This activity may require some inventiveness on the part of the teacher, since each school will have access to different resources. The activity involves making a large format map and having students populate it with Career Heroes.

Step 1: Decide what materials you will use in this activity. A large piece of poster-board, a section of large-format roll paper, or even several sheets of notebook paper taped together will be needed for each group. Additional art supplies, such as construction paper, paint, or markers may be used.

Step 2: Ask the students to think about all of the Career Heroes they have learned about. Have them make a list of some of the places these Heroes would work (examples would be grocery store, shopping mall, bank, hospital, etc.). Instruct each group to create a map of a small town (and possible surroundings) where their Career Heroes will work. Students should draw and label the buildings and/or outdoor areas on their map.

Step 3: Pose these questions: Who's missing from the city? What other occupations are needed to keep a community working properly? Allow students to brainstorm and call out answers as they think of them. Tell them to also think about occupations that were not displayed on the trading cards.

Step 4: Have each student create a new Career Hero Trading Card for one of the new occupations they named. Photocopy the blank card template on the next page for students to use. For an extra challenge, students can research their occupations and fill in the missing information. Ask students to cut their cards out, and place them on the map where their new Career Hero will work.
