Careers Coloring & Activity Book Worksheet

This activity will allow your child to use their imagination and creativity to increase their self-awareness and knowledge of the world of work. They will begin to identify some personal interests as well as some similarities among occupations.

DIRECTIONS: When a coloring page is completed, talk with your student or child about the occupation they colored. Use some of these questions to get the conversation going:

1. Does this person work alone or in a group? Which would you prefer?
2. Does this person work inside or outside? Which would you prefer?
3. Does this person work during the day or at night? Which would you prefer?
4. Does this person wear a uniform? Would you like to wear a uniform?
5. Does this person have to convince people to change their minds or their behavior or get people to buy something? Would you like to sell things or influence others?
6. Does this person travel or stay close to home? Which would you prefer?
7. Does this person work with his or her hands? Would you like to work with your hands?
8. Does this person give directions or follow directions? Which would you prefer?
9. Does this person use math? What kind of reading and writing does he or she do?
10. What other kinds of workers does this person work with?
