

4.1

4.0

4.0 - You:

- are a varsity athlete and All-Region in that sport
- decided to protect your GPA by not taking AP classes offered at your school

4.1 - You:

- typed your college essay and you forgot to change the name of the college where you were applying
- have participated in a significant community service project

3 . 7

3 . 5

3.5 - You:

- chose Greek as your intended major
- will be the first in your family to attend college

3.7 - You:

- have taken an exceptionally strong academic program
- chose as the topic of your college essay, sports as a metaphor for life
- have participated in no school-related activities
- are an Eagle Scout

3 . 3

3 . 1

3.1 - You:

- have taken an exceptionally strong academic program
- wrote the "essay of the year," the one that everyone passed around the office
- attended an enriching summer program between your junior and senior year
- got a "D" in an academic course at the end of your junior year
- wrote a letter to the college admission officer explaining the extenuating circumstances surrounding a grade of "D"

3.3 - You:

- clearly stated that this college is your first choice by making an early decision
- chose Psychology as your intended major
- plagiarized your college admission essay and got caught

2.9

2.8

2.8 - You:

- are a legacy at the college to which you are applying
- did not write the optional essay for your college application
- your last name is Trump & the name on the college library is Trump (no coincidence)

2.9 - You:

- direct the gospel choir at your church
- do not know your teachers well enough to feel comfortable asking for a recommendation