This report was produced by the Delaware Department of Labor, the Honorable Harold E. Stafford, Secretary, in the Office of Occupational and Labor Market Information, James K. McFadden, Ph.D., Director.

It was written by George A. Sharpley Jr., Ph.D., Senior Economist. Kim Johnstone, Crystal Comeger, Michelle Capers, and Marie Purnsley-Smith gathered, coded, and tabulated the survey data.

Our sincere thanks go to all the employers who took the time to provide the data; without their support, this publication could not exist.

Any questions or comments should be directed to George Sharpley at: (302) 761-8060 or george.sharpley@state.de.us.

Introduction

The Occupational Employment Statistics (OES) program is a cooperative effort of the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) and state employment security agencies (in Delaware, the Office of Occupational and Labor Market Information (OOLMI) in the Delaware Department of Labor). As outlined in more detail below, BLS developed the procedures and methodology, while OOLMI conducts the survey and tabulates the responses. A software program developed by the North Carolina State Employment Security Commission is used to produce the wage and employment estimates. This means that these estimates are not official BLS estimates, but in most cases they are identical to the official BLS estimates. When they differ, it is by miniscule amounts. We do not use the official BLS estimates because they do not provide them for Sussex or New Castle Counties, only Kent County (because it is a single-county metropolitan statistical area).

The OES program has ordinarily used three years of survey data, in order to increase reliability. Beginning in 2003, data collection is done twice yearly, with half the sample surveyed in the spring and half in the fall. In preparation for this change, the fall 2002 survey was about half its usual size, even though it was the only data collection for that year. That means this year the estimates are based on three and one-half years of surveys. In future years, they will be based on two and one-half years. The estimates in this publication come from surveys conducted in October, November, and December of 1999, 2000, 2001, and 2002. Data from the three earlier years are updated to expected 2002 values using national employment cost index factors.

The survey universe is all employers covered by the state Unemployment Insurance program, both private and public. This covers about 93 percent of the state's workers. Self-employed, some non-profit organizations, and most agricultural employment are excluded. All establishments (units) with 250 or more employees are automatically included in the survey, while those with fewer employees are randomly sampled for inclusion in the survey. The smallest units have the lowest probability of selection. Some details are provided below.

Year	Survey Universe		Survey Sample		Usable Response
	Units	Employment	Units	Employment	Units	Employment
1999	22,435	394,540	1,747	137,608	1,357	94,344
2000	23,211	407,813	1,615	108,366	1,247	77,697
2001	24,134	401,134	1,644	107,446	1,284	80,832
2002	24,321	404,381	846	55,705	687	46,458

Response rates averaged 77 percent over the three and one-half years of the survey. Nonresponding units have data imputed to them by means of a hot-deck "nearest neighbor" technique. This method finds the responding establishment (donor) which most closely resembles the nonresponding establishment, based on industry, size class, and area. The donor's data are then imputed to the nonresponding unit. Donors are used only once.

Delaware Wages 2002

Employers are not asked to supply exact wage rates for their employees. They are requested to indicate how many of their workers within each occupation are earning wages within each of the 12 ranges listed below. Conversion between hourly and annual wages is based on a 40 hour week, 52 week year (2,080 hours per year). Some occupations, for instance teachers, typically work a different schedule. Only annual wages are reported for these occupations. In the wage tables, these are printed in bold type. The table below shows the wage ranges used in the 1999 through 2002 wage surveys.

Range	Hourly Wage	Annual Wage
A	Under $6.75	Under $14,040
B	$6.75 to $8.49	$14,040 to $17,679
C	$8.50 to $10.74	$17,680 to $22,359
D	$10.75 to $13.49	$22,360 to $28,079
E	$13.50 to $16.99	$28,080 to $35,359
F	$17.00 to $21.49	$35,360 to $44,719
G	$21.50 to $27.24	$44,720 to $56,679
H	$27.25 to $34.49	$56,680 to $71,759
I	$34.50 to $43.74	$71,760 to $90,999
J	$43.75 to $55.49	$91,000 to $115,439
K	$55.50 to $69.99	$115,440 to $145,599
L	$70.00 and over	$145,600 and over

Wages include base rate, cost-of-living allowances, hazardous duty pay, incentive pay (including commissions, piece rates, and production bonuses), tips, longevity pay, on-call pay, and portal-to-portal pay. Not included are back pay, overtime pay, severance pay, shift differentials, premium pay for holidays or weekends, meal and lodging allowances, uniform allowances, non-production bonuses, profit sharing distributions, or stock bonuses.

Although a wide variety of statistics are estimated from the raw data, we publish only five: the employment level (EMPL) for all employers in the area (state or county), including those not in the survey; the mean (average) wage (MEAN); the median wage (MEDIAN), which half the workers in an occupation make less than, and the other half more than; and entry-level (ENTRY) and experienced (EXP) wage rates. NA in the employment field means that the employment estimate does not meet publishability standards, but the wage estimates do. When wage estimates do not meet standards, no estimates for the occupation are published.

To determine entry and experienced wage rates, an occupation's wage distribution is divided into thirds. The mean of the lowest third is the entry-level wage rate. The mean of the highest third is the experienced wage rate. This contrasts with previous Delaware wages reports, where we reported the 25th and 75th percentiles as potential proxies for entry-level and experienced wage rates. It is important to note that employers are not requested to supply information on their workers' amount of experience.

Delaware Wages 2002

The distribution of wages across Delaware is uneven, although it has appeared to narrow in recent years. The overall average hourly wage in New Castle County is $18.85, which amounts to $39,208 annually. This is 23 percent above Kent County's average wage of $15.27 per hour ($31,762 per year) and 36 percent above Sussex County's average wage of $13.88 per hour ($28,870). In 1995, New Castle County's average wage was 30 percent above Kent County's and 44 percent above Sussex County's. Wages have increased faster in the southern two counties over this period - average wages increased by 26 percent in New Castle County from 1995 to 2002 and by 33 percent in both Kent County and Sussex County.

The higher wages in New Castle County are due both to the industry and occupational mix in each county and to higher average wage rates in almost all occupational categories. Sussex County's relatively high concentration in retail trade, and to a somewhat lesser extent manufacturing (where chicken processing is the dominant type of manufacturing operation), is part of the explanation for its lower average wage. The table below shows the percentage of jobs by county within selected wage ranges.
