Letter to Teachers

Since 1989, the Delaware Department of Labor has produced and distributed the Delaware Career Compass to Delaware’s 8th through 12th grade students. The Compass guides students through the four phases of career development as outlined by the National Career Development Guidelines.

The Delaware Career Compass Teacher’s Guide was developed by the Delaware Career Compass Advisory Committee. This group of teachers and school counselors has designed supplemental activities to enhance the use of the Compass in your classroom. These activities are based upon their collective experience of classroom use of the Compass. This Committee meets annually to review the Compass and Guide and makes suggestions for improved service to Delaware students.

The Teacher’s Guide format corresponds to the four stages of career development outlined in the Compass as Step 1 through 4: Self-Assessment, Exploring Careers, Making a Decision, and Action Plan. In the Guide, these Steps are organized into six Lesson Plans. You’ll notice that Step #4 has been divided into three Lesson Plans to simplify use.

Step #1: “Who Am I?”- Self-Assessment Lesson Plan
Step #2: “What’s Out There?”- Exploring Careers Lesson Plan
Step #3: “How Do I Decide?”- Decision Process Lesson Plan
Step #4: “How Do I Do It?”- Taking Action
  Section A: Educational Opportunities Lesson Plan
  Section B: Postsecondary Opportunities Lesson Plan
  Section C: Job Search Lesson Plan

Each Lesson Plan consists of: 1) an overview; 2) a list of the Delaware Department of Education State Standards (in the core areas of Language Arts, Economics, and Mathematics) addressed by the activities in the lesson; 3) teacher instructions with helpful hints and an activity answer key; and 4) a list of the student activities with the approximate completion time required for each activity. The activities each correspond to an article in the Delaware Career Compass, referenced by specific page numbers. (Note: If a student is expected to supply an original answer to an activity question, we have noted “self-answered” on the answer key.)

The Delaware Career Compass and its Teacher’s Guide are valuable tools for Delaware students as they make their career plans. We would appreciate your overall comments and, in particular, suggestions for additional activities - ways in which you have used the Delaware Career Compass in your classroom. Please share them with us. It would also be very helpful if you complete the evaluation at the end of the Teacher’s Guide and send it to:

Lesson Plan
Step #1: “Who Am I?” - Self Assessment

Overview
This lesson helps students identify who they are as a person: their learning styles, their work style preference, their personality type, and their interests. Self-assessment is the important first step and the foundation of an overall career path.

State Standards
Language Arts 1-4

Objectives
At the end of this lesson, students will be able to:
1. describe their own learning styles
2. analyze their strengths and weaknesses according to workplace skills
3. determine their likes and dislikes
4. differentiate between personality types and work styles
5. understand their own personality type and how it relates to their career interests
6. determine how their interests fall within the career clusters
7. summarize and articulate what they have learned about themselves

Teacher Instructions
Teachers can use the Delaware Career Compass Step #1 readings and activities, as well as extension questions and supplemental activities provided on student handouts to allow students to assess their learning styles, work styles, personalities, and career interests.

Answer Key:
Activity 3.2
1. This activity will help identify an individual’s likes and dislikes or in other words, their interests. It will give ideas on what work will best suit an individual.
2. Self-answered.
3. There are three interest areas:
   a. Hands-On Person- involves working with tools and machines, are curious about how things work and like to build, operate, maintain, and repair equipment.
   b. People Person- enjoys being with others and exercising people skills such as caring, helping, advising, persuading, and cooperating.
   c. Information Person- has the ability to find, classify, organize, and explain information in ways that help others understand it.
4. More jobs listed on pages 7-9 of the Delaware Career Compass.
   b. People: teacher, counselor, social worker, and funeral director.
   c. Information: accountant, banker, realtor, and bookkeeper.
Student Activities

Using the Delaware Career Compass, students will complete the seven activities for “Who Am I?”, including:

- Activity 1: What is My Learning Style? (Time required: approximately 25 minutes)
- Activity 2: What Skills Do I Need? (Time required: approximately 25 minutes)
- Activity 3: What are My Personal Interests? (Time required: approximately 25 minutes)
- Activity 4: Work Styles (Time required: approximately 15 minutes)
- Activity 5: What is My Personality Type? (Time required: approximately 15 minutes)
- Activity 6: What are My Career Interests? (Time required: approximately 25 minutes)
- Activity 7: What I Know About Myself (Time required: approximately 20 minutes)
Activity 1:
What Is My Learning Style?

Name: ________________________________
Date: _________________________________
Period: ______________________________

Activity 1.1

Activity 1.2
Find someone in your class who has a different learning style than you. Discuss the following:

1. How do each of you learn best? What is your learning style?
2. How do you study for tests? Is it the same? Different?
3. Discuss ways that your learning style might influence what you do in your spare time.
4. Discuss reasons why it is important to know your learning style when you choose a career.

Activity 1.3
Write a paragraph that tells what you’ve learned about learning styles. Consider the following questions and statements when you write:

1. Describe your personal learning style.
2. How can being aware of your learning style benefit you? Give an example.
3. Why might it be important for you to know a friend’s learning style?
4. Give an example of how knowing your learning style could benefit you in a work environment.
5. Give an example of how knowing a co-worker’s learning style might benefit you in a work environment.

Activity 1.4
Explore two careers that match your learning style. What are they and do they interest you? Why or why not?

Career 1

Career 2
Activity 2:
What Skills Do I Need?

Activity 2.1
Complete “What Skills Do I Need?” on page 5.
Place a check either in the “can do” blank or the “needs work” blank for each statement.

Activity 2.2
After completing the above exercise, answer the following questions:

1. Based upon your results, which three skill areas are your areas of strength? Why?

2. Which three areas need more development? Why?

3. What actions can you take in order to improve the three areas in which you need improvement?

4. In your own words, explain what skills employers are looking for. Explain your marketable skills and what steps you can take to make yourself more marketable to possible employers.
Activity 3: What Are My Personal Interests?

Activity 3.1

Activity 3.2
Answer the following questions in complete sentences:

1. What did this exercise help you realize?

2. In what area did you find the best match? Do you agree or disagree with the results? Why or why not?

3. What are the main differences between the three areas of interest?

4. Can you infer what type of occupations would correspond with each area of interest? In other words, what type of job might each type of person have?

   Hands-on person: ______________________________________________________________

   People person: ________________________________________________________________

   Information person: __________________________________________________________
Activity 4: Work Styles

Name: ____________________________
Date: ____________________________
Period: _________________

Activity 4.1
Read about the different work styles listed on pages 7 - 9.

Activity 4.2
List the three work styles that you think best describe you.
1. __________________________________________
2. __________________________________________
3. __________________________________________

Activity 4.3
List three occupations from each work style you chose in Activity 4.2 that you would like to learn more about.

1a. ________________________    2a. ________________________
1b. ________________________    2b. ________________________
1c. ________________________    2c. ________________________
3a. ________________________
3b. ________________________
3c. ________________________

Activity 4.4
Which of the nine occupations above would you like to research first? Write a short paragraph explaining why you chose that occupation.

Supplemental Activity
Research all nine of the occupations you listed in Activity 4.3 OR Research these nine careers and give a three-sentence description of each.

• Pilot
• Paralegal
• Machinist
• Guidance Counselor
• Human Resource Manager
• Graphic Designer
• Registered Nurse
• Meteorologist
• Electrical Engineer
Activity 5:
What Is My Personality Type?

Activity 5.1
In order to determine your Holland Personality Code, read pages 10 and 11, and review the six personality types (realistic, investigative, artistic, social, enterprising, and conventional). Determine which three types are most like you and put them in order of first, second, and third (first being the most like you, second somewhat like you, and third a little like you, keeping in mind they are still your top three).

Activity 5.2
Construct your “Holland Code” by combining the corresponding letter of your first, second, and third personality type. For example, if you are of the realistic type the most, enterprising a little less, and social even less, but it’s still like you, then your code would be RES. You will use this personality code in choosing occupations to match your career interests.

Your Holland Code

Supplemental Activity
Pick one of the following people and determine his or her personality based on Dr. John Holland’s theory. Explain why you think he or she fits this personality type based on their individual characteristics.

- Bill Gates – founder of Microsoft
- JK Rowling – author
- John Madden – T.V. sportscaster
- Joseph R. Biden Jr. – Senator from Delaware
- Jennifer Lopez – singer/actor
- Lance Armstrong – bicyclist
Activity 6:
What Are My Career Interests?

Name: ________________________________
Date: ________________________________
Period: ____________________________

Activity 6.1
Complete the “What Are My Career Interests?” exercise on pages 12 and 13.

Activity 6.2
Write the Titles of the three Career Clusters that scored the highest. (Find these Titles in the Delaware Career Matrix on pages 20-53.)
1. ________________________________________________
2. ________________________________________________
3. ________________________________________________

Activity 6.3
List six occupations, two from each of the three Career Clusters you identified above, that you would like to learn more about. (Use the Delaware Career Matrix.)
1. ________________________________________________
2. ________________________________________________
3. ________________________________________________
4. ________________________________________________
5. ________________________________________________
6. ________________________________________________

Supplemental Activity
Research any three occupations you have chosen in Activity 6.3.
Activity 7: What I Know About Myself

Activity 7.1
Complete “What I Know About Myself” on page 14.

Activity 7.2
Get into groups of two or three. Share with each other what you know about yourself from the exercises in Step #1. Compare and contrast your results.

Supplemental Activity
Now that you have completed Step #1, write a paragraph that summarizes what you have learned about yourself and how that knowledge will help you make a good career choice.
Lesson Plan

Step #2: “What’s Out There?”- Exploring the World of Work

Overview
This section looks at Delaware's labor market and some of the occupations that offer the best wages and long term job opportunities. When finished with Step #2, students will have a wealth of occupational and labor market information upon which to base their career decision.

State Standards
Language Arts 1-4, Economics 1, Mathematics 3

Objectives
At the end of this lesson, students will be able to:

1. provide an overview of Delaware’s labor market
2. identify three job descriptions, number of job openings, and mean annual wages
3. read charts and interpret labor market information
4. identify the importance of education and the related economic benefits

Teacher Instructions

1. Students should read pages 15 through 19.

2. To ensure understanding of the Career Matrix on pages 20-53, you may need to guide students through each element of information in the matrix for a particular job. Make sure to emphasize the connection between Career Clusters, Career Pathways, and class choices.

3. In Activity 8.3, some students may question the fact that MBNA (now Bank of America) is still on the list. This is a good opportunity to explain to them that data often lag because of the collection process. Point out that the Largest Employer data are from December, 2005; these were the most current data available at press time. One must be a careful consumer of data to make accurate conclusions.

4. Using the work sheets for Activity 10, students should research characteristics of three different occupations. Students should respond to the questions; the final question might serve as a one-paragraph assignment for homework or in-class writing.

5. In Activity 11, students use a sample to develop their own budget starting with the gross monthly pay for an occupation they select from the matrix.
   a. Note that wages are given as annual wages, which students will have to convert to monthly figures.
   b. Next, students can apply the percentages in the sample budget for each expenditure category.
   c. Then, using the chart for different locations on page 55, generate a discussion about how they will have to budget their money.
   d. Students may use this activity with any hourly income they are currently earning. Discuss how to use the necessary conversions. Once the students have calculated the Gross Monthly Pay, they enter it on page 54 in the top blank of the table and create their budget.
Answer Key

Activity 8.2
1. Answers may include any of the following:
   •Jobs will be available with only on-the-job training but the pay will usually be lower
   •Ability to compare earnings to others in your field
   •Find out more details about wages than just the average wage
   •Compare benefits
   •Compare occupational wages across industries
2. Answers may include the following:
   •www.bls.gov
   •www.oolmi.net
   •http://online.onetcenter.org

Activity 8.3
1. MBNA America - 9,697 - (now Bank of America)
2. 2,852 - Poultry Processing
3. Pharmacist - $88,240
4. Retail Salespersons - good if you like it and can live on a low salary or you want to use it as a stepping stone to a management position that pays more of a livable wage
5. No. Because there are very few Forensic Science Technicians in the state, the growth percentage over 10 years is large but the absolute numbers are small. (40 to 60)
6. Retail Salespersons
7. Bill and Account collectors
8. 410. It is also one of the fastest growing occupations because Delaware has a great need for health care workers due to the aging population.

12. What are the annual openings (2004-2014) for this occupation in Delaware?

13. What worker skills are necessary for this career?

14. Are these skills a good match for you? Explain.

15. What does the Interest Code indicate about the personality necessary for this occupation?

Summary
Which one of the three jobs you studied best matches your interests and abilities? Why?
Activity 10.2

Look at page 55 and answer the questions below:

1. What is the average price for a half gallon of milk in Wilmington?

2. What is the average monthly rent for an apartment in Wilmington?

3. How much is the average monthly rent for an apartment in Manhattan, NY?

4. Which city on the West Coast would you say has the highest cost of living? Why?

5. Generally, how does the cost of living compare among different areas in Delaware? Why do you think this is?

Discussion Question:

Explain why the cost of gasoline on this chart does not reflect the current cost of gasoline.
Supplemental Activity 10.3: Learning about Jobs from the People Who Actually Do Them!

Divide yourselves into 4 groups. Each group take 4 interviews. Read the interviews and answer the following questions about each. Prepare to discuss your findings with the whole class.

1. A. How did your interviewee get his/her job?

   B. Who inspired him/her to go into this line of work?

2. A. What kinds of things does your interviewee like about his/her job?

   B. Dislike?

3. List the skills and worker qualities that are important in the job you are reading about.

4. What level of training/education/licenses does your interviewee have?

5. List any advice given by the interviewee.

6. A. What do you wish you knew about the job that wasn't answered in the interview?

   B. How could you find the answer?
Activity 11: Your Monthly Budget

Read and review “Your Money” on page 54 and complete the budget activity.

1. Monthly Pay Computation:
   Occupation selection: __________________________ Annual wage: _______________

   Convert to monthly wage:

   Put your answer in the “Yours” column, next to Gross Monthly Pay.

2. Now calculate your taxes. Multiply the Gross Monthly Pay by the indicated percentages for each category of your taxes.

3. Add: Federal + State + Social Security + Health Insurance + Pension = Total Taxes

5. Now determine your expenses. After multiplying the expense percentages by the Net Take-Home Pay, add the expense categories to find the Total Expenses.

6. Compare Total Expenses to Monthly Take Home Pay and explain your findings.
Now, look at the chart “Your Dollars Across America” on page 55.
Pick a location where you might like to live. Add the expenses for an apartment, phone, and total energy - this will give you a pretty good idea of your housing costs for that location. Compare that cost for housing to the amount you have budgeted for housing based on your Gross Monthly Pay.

City: ___________________________  State: ____________

Amount you have to spend in your budget (from Activity 11.1)

Your Budget Amount:  Costs for the city you’ve chosen:

Apt./mo. $___________  Apt./mo. $___________
Total Energy/mo. $___________  Total Energy/mo. $___________

Explain in the space below how you might deal with any differences that you find.
Lesson Plan
Step #3: “How Do I Decide?” - Decision Process

Overview
This lesson will match self-assessment results with the occupations of interest and discuss job characteristics. Students will match chosen occupations to job characteristics. Then they will be asked to set some specific goals.

State Standards
Language Arts 1-4

Objectives
At the end of this lesson, students will be able to:
1. understand work values and how they relate to career planning
2. summarize findings from self-assessment activities
3. correlate self-assessment profile to job profile
4. distinguish between compatible and incompatible jobs
5. extend data and predict long-term goals

Teacher Instructions
Teachers can use Step #3 activities and extension questions to allow students to decide which occupations truly fit their personalities, capabilities, work values, and goals.

Student Activities
Activity 12: How Do I Decide? (Time required: approximately 120 minutes)
Activity 12.1
Read page 57. Work impacts your entire life so it is important to keep your work values in mind when making an occupational decision. Complete the Work Values Assessment below.

Directions: Put a check next to the items that best describe you. Be honest with yourself!

1. I wish I could help homeless people.
2. I like doing different, not routine, kinds of things.
3. It would be exciting to be famous.
4. Family birthday parties are important.
5. A high salary is more important than an interesting job.
6. I always stick up for my brother/sister or someone younger than me.
7. If my friend needed me, I would not worry about finishing my homework. I would help my friend.
8. I would like to go to new places all over the world.
9. It is important for me to try to do the right thing.
10. I like winning in sports.
11. I always want to have beautiful things around me.
12. I tend to always tell the truth.
13. It is important to me to be popular.
14. I would like to help elderly people or children.
15. I wish I could paint beautiful pictures.
16. Having a lot of money would make me happy.
17. People come to me for advice.
18. I like the fact that I am a responsible person.
19. If I had money, I would help other people.
20. Even if my friend makes different decisions, I always do what is right for me.
21. Independence is really important to me.
22. I admire people who have expensive cars and houses.
23. I tend to keep friendships for a long time.
24. I judge people’s self-worth by how much money they have.
25. I would not be afraid to travel alone. I would even go around the world alone.
26. I would like to succeed in my own business and not work for anyone else.
27. I would like to associate with famous people.
28. I like being a leader.
29. I would like to be a famous writer because I like making up stories.
30. I choose my clothes carefully, because colors affect how I look and feel.
31. If I get bored, I quickly change what I am doing. I do something else.
32. If someone were hurt, I would find help right away. I would never just watch or walk away.
33. I would rather paint my own design than copy somebody else’s.
34. I would not feel good about myself if I cheated on a test, even if nobody else knew about it.
Work Values Assessment Interpretation

Name: ________________________________
Date: _________________________________
Period: _________________

Directions: Circle the numbers you checked on the Work Values Assessment.

Helping: You are very aware of the needs of others and want to do more to make the world a better place.

1  14  17  19  32

Adventure: Adventure is very important to you. You enjoy risk, new people, new things, and new places.

2  8  21  25  31

Success: You want to be well known or famous.

3  10  26  27  28

Relationships: You like people. Your family and friends are most important to you.

4  6  7  13  23

Money: You might choose a good salary over job satisfaction.

5  16  22  24

Honesty: You feel it is very important to be trustworthy and always honest.

9  12  18  20  34

Creativity: You like artistic things, such as music, art, and literature.

11  15  29  30  33

Now read about each work value on the next page. Are your results an accurate reflection of you? Why or why not.

Always keep your work values in mind when you are making decisions about your career.
DESCRIPTIONS OF WORK VALUES

Helping
If you enjoy making others happy, you might be attracted to one of many positions in the service industry. Consider being a recreation director, a youth worker, an activities director in a rehabilitation hospital, a psychologist, a physical therapist, or a sales person. The options in this area are unlimited.

Adventure
You will probably want to experience a certain degree of risk in your career. If you enjoy adventure, you will want a lot of variety and excitement in your job! Tour guides, flight attendants, police officers, and firefighters would fit this category.

Success (Power)
Not everyone who falls into this category is a famous movie star or musician. You may enjoy being a local radio or television personality. Often people who fall into this category find ways to be a star in their own work environment and community. Assuming leadership roles is a natural for you, and you enjoy change and seeing your goals accomplished. You may also want to start your own business in which you are the boss or be involved in politics.

Relationships (Family)
Working with others in a team environment will work well for you if relationships are your strong suit. Spending time with friends and family is important to you so you will want a job which allows for personal time. You may want to think of a job that allows flexibility in scheduling your work hours. You may enjoy a career in counseling, childcare, elder care, or public service. You probably would not be happy as a traveling sales representative, an airline pilot, or a data entry person who works alone.

Money (Wealth)
The amount you earn is a primary motivator when this is your highest scoring category. Often these careers require many years of education and hard work. They usually begin to pay off in middle age. Those fitting in this category need to especially think of how to balance interests while devoting time to education and further career development.

Honesty
You are the kind of employee who will focus on the laws and policies which govern society and the workplace. You may find yourself working for a nonprofit organization or other institutions where it is especially important to be honest, such as banking and finance. Other careers that fit into this category are those careers that help others examine their values such as careers in the clergy. Other examples of careers in this area include: parole officer, counselor, accountant, and tax auditor.

Creativity
Creativity is a skill that is used in many career fields. Decorating homes, designing buildings and landscapes, drawing, painting, and writing are all forms of creativity. Creativity is also required in jobs that involve problem solving and planning.
Activity 12.2
Complete the “How Do I Match Up?” worksheet on page 58, comparing your self-profile (review page 14, “What I Know About Myself”) with your preferred job descriptions. Do the two match? If so, how? If not, why not?

Activity 12.3
List three occupations that you would not choose based on your findings.

_________________________________________________
_________________________________________________
_________________________________________________

Explain why these occupations would not be a good match for you.

Activity 12.4
Based on what you have learned about yourself and occupations, list three occupations about which you would like more information.

_________________________________________________
_________________________________________________
_________________________________________________

Activity 12.5
Set your 1-Year, 5-Year, 10-Year, and Lifetime Goals.

Fill out a Goal sheet (see page 60) for each time period. Be specific.

List actual job and salary desired at each stage, whether or not you will own your own home, and where you will be living. Also, list any particular hobbies you want to participate in or travel you would like to take during these time periods. Have you thought about fitting community service into your life?
Lesson Plan

Step #4: “How Do I Do It?” - Taking Action
Section A: Educational Opportunities
Section B: Postsecondary Opportunities
Section C: Job Search

Step #4 - SECTION A: Educational Opportunities

Overview
This section stresses how education impacts job opportunities, wages, and job security. The availability of career and technical education programs, such as Tech Prep, currently offer students opportunities to develop leadership and other skills.

State Standards
Language Arts 1-4, Economics 1, Mathematics 3

Objectives
At the end of this lesson, students will be able to:
1. identify the importance of education and the related economic benefits
2. define and understand Apprenticeships, Tech Prep, Career and Technical Education programs, including student organizations, and the benefits of participation in these programs
3. recognize positive personal skills in high school and how they relate to successful employee traits

Teacher Instructions
Within Step 4, there are three sub-sections (A-C). Teachers can use Section A readings and activities to provide information on the levels and the importance of education and how education relates to lifestyle choices.

Discussion points include:

♦ The importance of education
♦ The influence of education on lifestyle choices
♦ How vocational programs in high school can help develop good work habits
Answer Key:

Activity 13.1
Landscaping Worker: High School/On-the-job training
Vocational Teacher: High School & Bachelor’s Degree & Work Experience (4+ years)
Urban Planner: High School, Bachelor’s Degree & Advanced Degree (5+ years)
Public Health Social Worker: High School & Bachelor’s Degree (4 years)
Lawyer: High School, Bachelor’s, & Professional Degree (7 years)

Activity 13.2: Employment Quiz
1. F 6. T
2. F 7. F
3. F 8. C
4. T 9. D
5. T 10. B

Activity 14.1:
1. Teacher needs to provide answers for individual school
2. TECH PREP is a program for students to receive free college credit by combining technical training and academics while in high school. Guidance counselor.
3. Teacher provided.

Activity 15.1
1. Knowing how to learn, problem-solving, reasoning, self-management, and responsibility
2. Decision-making, self-management, responsibility, cooperation, and problem-solving
3. Very similar traits

Student Activities

Activity 13: Why is Education Important to Me?
(Time required: approximately 50 minutes)

Activity 14: Career and Technical Education Organizations
(Time required: approximately 25 minutes)

Activity 15: Build Your Work Foundation in School
(Time required: approximately 45 minutes)
Activity 13:
Why is Education Important to Me?

Levels of Education

The chart below shows possible educational paths and approximate time frames. These are examples of how to advance your education. If you work while going to school, it may take longer to achieve your educational goals, but you will achieve them nonetheless. Some occupations require higher education than others.
Activity 13.1

Using the Delaware Career Matrix on pages 20-53 and the chart on the previous page, list a possible educational path for each of the following occupations. How many years of education after high school would this path take?

Example: Systems Analyst  High School -- Associate Degree -- Bachelor's Degree = 4 yrs.

1. Landscaping Worker ____________________________
2. Vocational Teacher ____________________________
3. Urban Planner ________________________________
4. Public Health Social Worker ____________________
5. Lawyer ______________________________________

Activity 13.2

Directions: Circle the correct answer to the following questions to determine how much you know about the job market.

T  F  1. Most people find their jobs in the classifieds.
T  F  2. There is only one right job for you and your abilities.
T  F  3. The best way to get a job is to wait until the right opportunity comes along.
T  F  4. Generally speaking, the more education you have, the more likely you are to find a job.
T  F  5. Generally speaking, the more education you have, the more money you will make.
T  F  6. Change is inevitable so learn to be flexible. Learning is ongoing.
T  F  7. Except for the income you get, your job has little influence on your way of life.

8. Which of the following probably describes the job opportunities in ten years?
   a. Most jobs will require four or more years of college.
   b. There will be a greater number of jobs for unskilled workers.
   c. There will be a greater number of jobs for those with technical skills required beyond high school.

9. Select the best way to begin planning your career?
   a. Decide what you think is most important.
   b. Look at what is available in the job market.
   c. Take tests to find out what you should do.
   d. All of the above.

10. If you cannot make up your mind about what occupation to go into, first you should:
    a. Try out as many jobs as you can.
    b. Find out more about what different occupations are like.
    c. Try one and if you like it, stick with it.
    d. Find out if they have any jobs in Delaware.

7-10 answers right: WOW! You’ve been doing some reading, but visit with your counselor.
4-6 answers right: OKAY. You’re on your way, but visit with your counselor.
0-3 answers right: PROCEED directly to the Guidance Counselor’s office.
      (Do not pass go, do not collect $200)
Activity 14: Career & Technical Education Organizations and Tech Prep

Activity 14.1
Read page 64 – 67. Research your specific school to answer the following questions:

1. Which Career and Technical Student organizations are available at your high school?

2. What is Tech Prep Delaware? Who do you contact in your school to learn more about Tech Prep?

3. List two Tech Prep courses that are offered in your school or the high school you will attend. Explain how it would benefit you to enroll in these courses.
Activity 15:
Build Your Work Foundation In School

Activity 15.1
Look at “Build Your Work Foundation in School” on the inside back cover of the Compass. Answer the following questions:

1. What are five positive personality traits of a successful student?

2. What are five positive personality traits of a successful employee?

3. Compare #1 and #2. Are they the same traits?

4. Discuss your findings with your classmates.

Activity 15.2
We all have skills. Sometimes they are hard to find and sometimes they need to be developed. Skills are learned talents or capacities. Acquired or learned skills are used to complete a task in the workplace or other places. Often, we take our skills for granted. The following exercise will assist you in discovering your skills.

1. Think about all the things you do each day: reading, writing, math, speaking, listening, sports, clubs, hobbies, chores, and part-time work. What skills did you use? Could they be transferred to the workplace?

2. Have you recently written an essay, a letter to a friend or relative, or given a presentation in a classroom? Written and oral presentations require the skill of conveying information clearly. Is this skill used in the workplace? By whom?
3. Have you used a computer lately? To do what? What computer skills and knowledge have you acquired? Who uses computer skills at work?

4. How do you manage your time? Classwork, homework, projects, and reports all require time management skills. Is this something you need to improve? How important is time management in the workplace?

5. State a problem you have had to conquer at work or school.

   a. What action did you take?

   b. What was the result?

   c. Skills take problems and turn them into results. What skills did you use in solving the problem?

Activity 15.3
Review the worksheet on the next page called “Related School Subjects”. Pick your top three subjects and write a short paragraph about why you chose these. Do you see yourself in the related careers? Why or why not?

Lesson Plan
Step 4/SECTION B: Postsecondary Opportunities

Overview
In pursuing a career, students will need to think about the kind of education/training that is required for each occupation. Section B will provide students with information regarding colleges and universities. It will also explore how the Armed Forces can assist students to pay for college, as well as offer many other benefits and skills that will be useful in daily life.

State Standards
Language Arts 1-4, Business Education 3

Objectives
At the end of this lesson, students will be able to:
1. demonstrate knowledge of college planning steps at each grade level
2. understand available financial aid resources
3. identify the educational, training, and financial aid opportunities provided by the Armed Services

Teacher Instructions
Teachers can use the activities and readings in Section B to discuss college planning, financial resources, and military service.

Answer Key:
Supplemental Activity 16.d.
1. Delaware Technical & Community College:
   Stanton Campus   Wilmington Campus
   Newark          Wilmington
   Terry Campus    Owens Campus
   Dover           Georgetown

2. Close to home, less expensive, provides course of study you are interested in
3. Self-answered based on interests and research of community college sites

Activity 17.1
1. The money for financial aid comes from federal and state governments, banks, the schools themselves, and private donors.
2. You must apply for financial aid.
3. The amount and kind of aid you receive is based on your financial need, your academic record, and on the kinds of available aid at the school you attend.
4. A grant does not require repayment.
   A loan requires repayment, usually after you leave school, and has a lower interest rate than other bank loans.
Student Activities

Using the Career Compass, students will complete the following activities for Section B:

Activity 16: Postsecondary Opportunities (Time required: approximately 20 minutes)

Supplemental activities (Time required: approximately 90 minutes)
- Activity 16.a: Choosing a College
- Activity 16.b: What to Look for in a College Catalog
- Activity 16.c: What to Look for When Visiting a School Campus
- Activity 16.d: Community/Technical Colleges and Your Career Path

Activity 17: Financial Aid (Time required: approximately 30 minutes)

Activity 18: Is the Military for You? (Time required: approximately 30-60 minutes)

Supplemental activity 18.3 (Time required: approximately 30 minutes)
Activity 16:
Postsecondary Opportunities

Activity 16.1
Read “Your College Countdown” on page 68 and discuss.

Activity 16.2
Circle the best answer for you.

1. If I were out of high school right now, I would go to:
   a. A large, 4-year, in-state institution: University of Delaware

   b. It is important to me that my teachers know me.

10. Choose one:
    a. I want to live at the college in a dormitory.
    b. It’s OK if there are dormitories, but I don’t want to live in one.
    c. It’s OK with me if dormitories are not available.
    d. Campus housing is not important to me, for I would commute from home, or live with relatives.

11. I feel:
    a. it is important to have a lot of my high school friends go to that school.
    b. I would like to go to a school where I can make all new friends.
    c. it is important to choose the school because a friend is going there.
    d. that it is not important to have a lot of my high school friends go to that school.
Supplemental Activity 16.a: Choosing a College

I. Survey the Possibilities

Begin your search with a survey of colleges located in the geographic area of your choice.

Check your local library, school library, or guidance office for the following resources which may help you:

- College Catalogs
- College Handbook
- Barron's Profiles of American Colleges
- Patterson's Schools Classifieds

Other Resources:

- College Guides and Maps
- Occupational Outlook Handbooks
- Financial Aid Forms
- Armed Forces Brochures
- Internet

II. Weigh the Differences

Fill out the information below about colleges that interest you. Then compare.

Location and Setting: distance from home; city, small town, or country setting

Type and size of college: co-ed, men's, women's, liberal arts, technical, junior, church-related, state-supported, enrollment, facilities

Comprehensive cost: tuition, room and board, extra fees, books, travel expenses, spending money, special clothing

Financial aid: honor scholarships, grants-in-aid, loans, alternative/work study programs, campus jobs

Special curricula: engineering, political science, computers, music, education, marine biology, business, etc.

Admissions requirements: required subjects, test scores, grade point average, class rank, special talents

Kind of students who attend: habits, interests, goals, ethnic and religious background

Campus life: cultural events, sports, clubs, fraternities and sororities, recreational facilities, rules and regulations, surroundings
III. Narrow Your Choices

No college (nor type of college) is right for all students, but there are certain colleges that are right for you. Before narrowing your choices, you should answer some basic questions about yourself.

1. What am I able to do?

2. What do I want out of life?

3. What do I need in the way of training?

NARROW your choices to 7-10 colleges and write for catalogs. When you have selected 3-6 colleges and have the results of one college admissions examination, consult your counselor.

LISTEN for announcements regarding visits of college representatives to your school and arrange to talk with a few. Attend the annual postsecondary education opportunities day held at school and talk with admissions personnel representing the colleges you are considering.

EVALUATE the institution as a place where you might eat, sleep, and study for the next two to four years. Tour the facilities and inquire about the extracurricular activities, the personal services, and the school regulations. If the college is in session, visit a class, talk to students, observe campus behavior, and eat a meal in the dining hall. You will know from your experience on the campus whether that college is right for you. No amount of reading or discussing will tell you this.

☑ Checklist for Making College Plans

- Think about preliminary criteria and your priorities.
- Make a college list that includes “safeties”, “possibilities”, and “reach” schools.
- Note colleges where interviews are required.
- Map out your itinerary.
- Check that the colleges are in session. Find out tour times and make appointments when needed.
- Plan how and with whom you’ll go.
- Balance college visits and school demands.
- Arrange for high school absence and plan to make up missed work.
- Pack appropriate clothes for the interview.
- Write names and phone numbers of the college administrators you plan to see.
- Bring questions and be sure to have a pen and notebook with which to write important information.
- Bring high school transcript in case admissions counselor requests one.

What to Look for When Visiting a College Campus

Check page 71 of the Delaware Career Compass for websites and telephone numbers of area schools.

Visiting a school campus may include an interview with the admissions personnel, so be prepared to:

1. Talk about yourself - your interests, your goals, your courses, and grades. Take along your personal copy of your school grades/transcript and activities.
2. Talk about the need for financial help (if needed).
3. Ask questions about the school, courses, rules/regulations. Read the catalog before your visit. Write down your questions in advance and DO TAKE NOTES!
4. Even though you might be nervous, be yourself.

On the campus:

1. Take a tour if possible.
2. Allow enough time to get the “feel of the campus.” Try to imagine yourself as a student there.
3. Schedule your appointments two weeks in advance and BE ON TIME!
4. Pick up all forms you need: application, catalog, map, and financial aid forms.
5. Visit the library. Find out how many computer labs are available on campus. Do you need to bring a computer?
6. Try to visit a class or two.
7. Talk to students: Ask them what they like about the school, and equally important, what they DON’T like.
8. Ask questions about life on the campus – what activities does the college offer?

Soon after, or during your visit:
1. Make notes on your reactions and your feelings about the school.
2. Write thank-you notes when appropriate.

MAKE YOUR COLLEGE VISITS EARLY IN YOUR PLANNING PROCESS.
Supplemental Activity 16.d: Community/Technical Colleges and Your Career Path

1. Look at page 71, which shows where the technical & community colleges are located in Delaware. Which community college is closest to your high school?

_________________________________________________________________________

2. List two reasons why someone would choose to attend a technical & community college.

a._________________________________________________________________________

b._________________________________________________________________________

3. Choose two Career Clusters in which you are interested and write them below. Now list three occupations that require training beyond high school under each Career Cluster. Research the availability of training for each of these occupations at the technical & community college nearest you. Check “yes” or “no” when you have your results.

Lesson Plan
Step 4/Section C: Job Search

Overview
Finding the right job takes planning and preparation. It requires good organization, management of time and energy, a positive outlook, and good decision making.

State Standards
Language Arts 1-4, Business Education 1

Objectives
At the end of this lesson, students will be able to:
1. access many sources to find job leads
2. apply for a job successfully
3. develop sample resume and cover letter
4. prepare for and learn how to conduct themselves in an interview
5. understand their rights and responsibilities as an employee

Teacher Instructions
Teachers can use Section C to instruct students on employment seeking skills using the readings and activities provided.

Discussion points include:
• How are the labor laws different for employees who are younger than 18 years old?
• What is networking and why is it important?
• What rights does an employee have?
• Importance of resumes, applications, and cover letters.

Answer Key:

Activity 19.1:
1. Any teenager 17 years or younger is required to have a work permit prior to being employed.
2. Teacher-answered for the particular school.
3. The employer, a school official, and the minor (student). A parent must sign if the minor is 15 years or younger.
4. Restricted activities include: operating or cleaning slicing machines, use of circular or band saws, dough mixing machines, and other forming, punching or shearing machines.
5. Minimum wage is $6.15 per hour.

Activity 20.1
1. Employers conduct drug screenings in various ways: by asking applicants about current and past drug use; by giving a written test or polygraph test; or by medical tests of urine, blood, or hair samples. The most commonly used test is a urinalysis or urine test.
2. Employers conduct drug testing for the safety of their employees. Allowing an employee to drive a truck who is under the influence of drugs or alcohol can be a liability. In addition, employees may experience side effects such as memory loss, inability to concentrate, depression, paranoia, and other health-related problems as well as high absenteeism from the job.
3. Self answered.
4. Yes. Almost all Delaware employers conduct background checks on job applicants.

Activity 21.1:
1. People you know, professional contacts, national associations, trade publications, former students, Department of Labor, and the Internet.
2. Do your homework, know about the company, be ready to talk about yourself, prepare questions, participate actively, discuss all relevant work experience

Activity 23.3: Create Your Objectives
Questions 1 through 4: Self answered.

Activity 25.2
1. Social Security card, copy of resume, copy of personal references, samples of work, portfolio, black pen. Other items listed on page 87 of the Delaware Career Compass.
2. Know the company, dress professionally, and practice interview questions.
3. What are the duties of the job you are interviewing for? What products or services does the company provide?
4. Offer a firm handshake, speak clearly and concisely, be positive and polite, and have reasons why the employer should hire you.
5. What do you consider your greatest strengths and weaknesses? What interests you about this job? Why should I hire you?
6. What are the possibilities of advancement in this organization? What are you looking for in the person you hire for the position? When will a decision be made?
7. After an interview, you should send a thank you letter expressing appreciation to the interviewer for taking the time to see you.
Activity 26.2:
1. Be dependable, provide good work, have a positive attitude, be helpful, be a team player, dress appropriately, don’t waste time or resources, control your emotions, be a diplomat, and treat everyone with respect.
2. Self-answered.
4. Self-answered.

Activity 23: Resumes

Name: ________________________________
Date: ________________________________
Period: ______________________________

Activity 23.1

Build a Personal Resume File
Read pages 79 through 81 regarding resumes. Using the Personal Fact Checklist on page 80 as your guide, gather all the information needed to create your resume. (Hold off on the Objective Statement. You’ll tackle that in Activity 23.3) Choose a safe place to store this information - a personal resume file - so that you will not have to gather it again! Continue to add to your file and make the necessary changes as your experience grows and your life progresses.

Note: Don’t worry about formatting your resume now. Concentrate only on creating lists of information including: names, addresses, dates, volunteer activities, skills, personal/special skills, etc. These are the building blocks of your resume.

Activity 23.2

Practice Writing Action Statements
Whenever possible, compose your list of skills and experiences using strong action verbs that emphasize results and performance. This in itself is a skill that you can learn! It just takes thought and practice. Here’s an example (action verbs in bold):

*managed the annual Key Club car wash that resulted in an increase in club participation and generated 26% more in proceeds for charity over the prior year

Review Activity 15.2 for a list of skills you’ve already identified. Now use those skills and any you identified in Activity 23.1 to practice writing your personal action statements. The Resume Action Verbs list on page 81 will help you get started. When you are happy with your statements, add them to your personal resume file for safekeeping.

Activity 23.3

Create Your Objective and/or Profile
Review the objective and profile on the sample resumes on pages 82 and 83. Imagine you are developing a resume designed to target a specific job for which you are qualified. It could be a retail clerk, a lifeguard, a singer, a mechanic, or any other occupation for which you have skills and have a true interest. Organize your thoughts by answering the following four questions. Example answers are provided to help you with the process. Then, using your answers, create an eye-catching objective and/or profile. Save it in your personal resume file!

Note: This information will also be useful when writing your cover letter.
Questions:
1. What job interests you?
   Example: Lifeguard
   Swim Instructor

2. What kind of environment do you want to work in?
   neighborhood pool

3. What is your availability?
   summer, full-time
   days, nights and weekends

4. What skills will you bring to this specific job?
   CPR, First Aid, AED, WSI, Lifeguarding
   3 summers experience, good communication skills, team player, professional H.S. swim team captain

Note: Use the list of skills and action statements from your personal resume file to choose the ones that would be most appropriate for the specific job you’re imagining.

Now write your objective and profile and add them to your personal resume file.

Objective Example: A full-time summer position as a lifeguard and swim instructor for a neighborhood pool where I can be part of a team to help people safely enjoy the water.

Profile Example: An honor roll student athlete with extensive waterfront experience at both summer camp and neighborhood pools. Demonstrates strong leadership and communication skills as well as good judgement. Holds current certification in CPR, First Aid, AED, Lifeguarding, and WSI.

Activity 23.4
Choose a Format and Build Your Resume
Reread Section 2 on page 80 - Choose a Format - and examine the two resumes on pages 82 and 83. Choose a format for your resume that will best show off your skills. Now build a rough draft of your resume.

Note: You have all the tools you need in your personal resume file. Use it!

Activity 23.5
Prepare a Reference Sheet
Prepare a Reference Sheet to take with you to the interview. This will include your name, address, and contact information, as well as three to five people who know your abilities and will speak highly of you. Make sure that they have agreed to speak on your behalf before providing an employer with this information. As always, file it away for future reference.
Activity 24:
Cover Letters

The next page contains newspaper classified ads. Respond to an ad which requires your individual skills and experience. (You may also look in your local newspaper.) Below is an example for you to follow. You may also follow the example on page 85 of your Career Compass.

Answer the following questions:

1. List three things that you should bring to a job interview.

2. List two ways that you should prepare yourself before the job.

3. Name two things that you should know about a company before you are interviewed for a job.

4. List four rules to follow in order to have a good interview.

5. List three questions that you might be asked during an interview.

6. List three questions that you should ask during the interview.

7. What steps should a person take after being interviewed for a job?
Often your chances of employment can be increased by making another contact with the employer. This can be done by a telephone call or a thank-you letter. The thank-you letter is the most common follow-up method.

FOLLOW-UP LETTER

♦ A thank-you letter may be typed or neatly handwritten on personal stationary.
♦ The letter should be written soon after the company or job fair interview. The next day is best!
♦ The letter should state your continued interest in the job and your appreciation of the time spent with you during the interview.

Students will develop their ability to reason mathematically by solving problems in which there is a need to investigate significant mathematical ideas in all content areas; to justify their thinking; to reinforce and extend their logical reasoning abilities; to reflect on and clarify their own thinking; to ask questions to extend their thinking; and to construct their own learning.
Delaware Career Compass
Teacher’s Guide Evaluation

Some of you have used the Delaware Career Compass for several years and others may not be familiar with it. We want to increase awareness of the Compass and its use in the classroom. With the implementation of the Department of Education’s Career Pathways, we feel the Compass can be an important tool in designing course content to meet the Career Pathways standards of disseminating career information and linking student’s career awareness with various academic subjects.

The Delaware Career Compass addresses all phases of career development addressed in the Delaware Guidelines for K-12 Guidance Programs: assessing career interests and skills; job search skills; career exploration; the correlation between personal qualities, education and training; identifying career goals; and strategies for achieving career success.

We’re asking you, the experts, what we can do to improve the use of the Compass, and how it can help you incorporate career information into your curriculum. Thank you very much.
