

	Strongly Agree	Somewhat Agree
I Understand How Money is allocated	2	9
I have an impact on setting priorities for the DWDB	1	7
I understand the difference between state blue collar funds and federal workforce development funds	2	7
I want to be more involved helping the DWDB set priorities.	3	2
I understand how funding guidelines are developed.	1	6
My input updating funding guidelines matters.	5	4
I understand how I know how to submit input to the proposal review committee.	2	5
I understand how the demand occupation list is developed.	0	1
I understand how the demand occupation list is used.	1	4
I always serve on proposal review panels.	5	1
The current allocation between skill areas makes sense (e.g. Hard skills, soft skills, etc.).	4	3
Proposal panels are an important DWDB activity	9	0
I understand how the RFP process supplements/complements the ITA process	4	3
I understand how the state blue collar fund works.	0	8
I understand the RFP process.	4	6
If I knew more, I would be more involved.	0	3

If I could change One thing

More funding given to providers who st

more collaboration among training sup

The process in which funding is award

Have better method for assessing parti

Meetings always up state

Neither Agree or Disagree	Somewhat Disagree	Strongly Disagree
0	1	0
1	3	0
0	3	0
6	0	0
2	3	0
1	2	0
0	4	1
2	6	1
2	5	0
3	0	3
4	0	0
0	2	0
0	3	0
0	3	0
0	1	0
5	2	1

low positive results and not just the same providers receiving money every year. We need to become more performers as well as the process for scoring the organizations. Review proposals to ensure that panelists are assessing similarly.

rmance based in our allocation of funding regardless of providers.